Gospel

Matthew 23:1-12

Jesus spoke to the crowds and to his disciples, saying, "The scribes and the Pharisees have taken their seat on the chair of Moses. Therefore, do and observe all things whatsoever they tell you, but do not follow their example. For they preach but they do not practice. They tie up heavy burdens hard to carry and lay them on people's shoulders, but they will not lift a finger to move them. All their works are performed to be seen. They widen their phylacteries and lengthen their tassels. They love places of honor at banquets, seats of honor in synagogues, greetings in marketplaces, and the salutation 'Rabbi.'

As for you, do not be called 'Rabbi.' You have but one teacher, and you are all brothers. Call no one on earth your father; you have but one Father in heaven. Do not be called 'Master'; you have but one master, the Christ. The greatest among you must be your servant. Whoever exalts himself will be humbled; but whoever humbles himself will be exalted."

2012 St. James' Calendar Has Arrived!

Our 2012 Religious Art Calendar is here!

WREATHS ACROSS AMERICA

Saturday, December 10, 2011 is Wreaths Across America Day (WAA) It began as The Arlington Wreath project started by Morrill Worcester in 1992 with the donation and laying of 5000 Christmas Wreaths to Arlington National Cemetery. It was relatively obscure until 2005 when a photo of the stones adorned with wreaths and covered in snow circulated around the internet. The project received National attention. In 2006 over 150 State and National cemeteries held wreath laying ceremonies simultaneously. By 2008 over 300 locations held wreath laying ceremonies in every state.

WAA reaches out to thousands of children each year with the message of Remember, Honor and Teach. The importance of honoring each fallen serviceman/woman as an individual is stressed. The wreath laying is now held each year on the second Saturday of December and was unanimously voted by the U.S. Congress as “Wreaths Across America” Day. By offering sponsorships to the public, Wreaths Across America hopes that one day every Veteran’s resting place will be adorned with a wreath for the holiday season.

You may honor YOUR HERO who is buried at any local cemetery by sponsoring a $15.00 Wreath. Now through November 28th stop in and order a wreath for your hero at Gasch’s Funeral Home (4739 Baltimore Ave, Hyattsville) Gasch’s Funeral Home PA. is one of nearly 1000 family owned Veterans & Family Memorial Care providers across

40 Days for Life Spring 2011 Campaign

This is a semi-annual international ecumenical pro-life campaign to defeat the ‘culture of death’ and to build a ‘culture of life’. Locally, this is the sixth campaign for College Park, at the Metropolitan Family Planning Institute on Greenbelt Road in Berwyn Heights. Please consider participating in this important campaign through: 1) prayerful presence in a peaceful vigil, 2) prayer and fasting for an end to legalized abortion in our state, country and world, and 3) educating others in the community on the importance of preserving and defending the sanctity of all human life. The Campaign begins September 28 and ends November 6. St. James parishioners will be covering Tuesday evenings from 6 to 8 pm.

If you can sign up for one of these hours, please email Claire Beller at claire.beller31@gmail.com.

If another time works better for you, please visit the web site at <http://www.40daysforlife.com/collegepark> and/or contact Janice Oliver, Fall 2011 Campaign Director, at (301) 518-3874 or 40DaysforLifeMD@gmail.com.
