Gospel

Luke 14:1, 7-14

On a sabbath Jesus went to dine at the home of one of the leading Pharisees, and the people there were observing him carefully. He told a parable to those who had been invited, noticing how they were choosing the places of honor at the table.

“When you are invited by someone to a wedding banquet, do not recline at table in the place of honor. A more distinguished guest than you may have been invited by him, and the host who invited both of you may approach you and say, ‘Give your place to this man,’ and then you would proceed with embarrassment to take the lowest place.

Rather, when you are invited, go and take the lowest place so that when the host comes to you he may say, ‘My friend, move up to a higher position.’ Then you will enjoy the esteem of your companions at the table. For every one who exalts himself will be humbled, but the one who humbles himself will be exalted.”

Then he said to the host who invited him, “When you hold a lunch or a dinner, do not invite your friends or your brothers or your relatives or your wealthy neighbors, in case they may invite you back and you have repayment. Rather, when you hold a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind; blessed indeed will you be because of their inability to repay you. For you will be repaid at the resurrection of the righteous.”

LOYOLA RETREAT HOUSE NEWS

The St. James HNS Men's Annual Retreat is scheduled for the weekend of September 17-19 this year. As always, if you are a first time retreatant, the HNS will pay for your entire weekend. If you are repeating, the HNS will pay one half of the suggested offering of $225.00. If you have a financial hardship, that must not stop you from this gratifying retreat. Your Retreat Captains have Certificates issued by the Retreat House to help you. Please call Joe Armstrong at 301-332-3933 or Dick Bissell at 301-277-5823.

Colonial Reality in Waldorf is sponsoring a golf outing to benefit Loyola Retreat House on Tuesday, August 17th. The fees are most reasonable at $40.00 and one half of the fee will be donated to Loyola. It will take place at the Hawthorne Country Club in LaPlata. You are urged to grab a bite at Cindy's Restaurant in the Hawthorne Club House and 10% of your bill will go to Loyola. Just call 301-934-2433 for a tee time up to one week in advance.

The icing on the cake for this year's retreatants is an Open House and Crab Feast in memory of Fr. Frank Mills, S.J. who passed away last year. As our men are aware, we finish our retreat with lunch on Sunday then hit the road for Mount Rainier. This year we may skip lunch if we wish and at 2:00 p.m. we can dig into some freshly steamed hardshells and also enjoy beer, corn on the cob, hamburgers, hot dogs, beer, cole slaw, ice cream and beer. There will also be games and prizes. So even if you're not on retreat this weekend, this is a great opportunity to bring your family for some food, fun and to see where you get your halo shined. Single tickets are $50.00 and two for $85.00. Children under 8 eat free ! No tickets at the door, advanced ticket sales only. Captain Billy's will be catering this event.

Ministry with Persons with Disabilities Archdiocese of Washington to celebrate inaugural White Mass for persons with special needs.

Washington Archbishop Donald W. Wuerl will be the principal celebrant for the archdiocese's first annual "White Mass" to honor the gifts of persons with special needs

The Mass will bring together national, regional and local leaders who have special needs and those who care for or serve them, including Janice L. Benton, Executive Director of the National Catholic Partnership on Disability and Barbara Lampe, Executive Director of the National Apostolate for Inclusion Ministry. Persons with special needs, family members, clergy, pastoral care workers, ministry and nonprofit staff, as well as leaders in business and government will also attend.

Sunday, October 24, 2010

11:30 a.m.

Cathedral of St. Matthew the Apostle

1725 Rhode Island Ave., NW, Washington, DC

The Mass has the designation of white because of the color's connection to baptism, because all Catholics are equal in dignity in the sight of God, by reason of their baptism.

EPS EDUCATION: Back-to-school time is not just for kids! Adult Catholics who want to learn more about their faith can head back to the classroom at Education for Parish Service (EPS), which is offering The Birth of the Church, an exploration of the development of the early Church from the apostles through the fifth century, on Tuesdays, September 14th – October 19th, from 10am–12:45pm. Mass is included in event, held on the campus of Trinity Washington University, 125 Michigan Avenue, NE, Washington, DC. Rev. Robert L. Anello, M.S.A., Ph.D. candidate, will be instructor.

EPS also offers The Church as Sacrament, a study of how the sacraments of baptism, confirmation and Eucharist prepare us for a life of discipleship, on Tuesdays, September 14th – October 19th, from 7-9:15pm.

EPS President Emerita, Sr. Mary Ann Cook, D.Phil. will teach this course.

Contact Ann Kitterman at kittermana@trinitydc.edu or on 202-884-9030, or see website <http://eps.trinitydc.edu>.

EPS is an independent non-profit organization and relies solely on tax deductible donations from its students, graduates, friends and the parishes and dioceses it serves.

ARCHDIOCESAN RESPECT LIFE MASS & PRAYER PROCESSION AT ST. MATTHEW'S

As stated by Pope John Paul II in the Gospel of Life, "a great prayer for life is urgently needed, a prayer which will rise up throughout the world."

With more than 40 percent of all pregnancies in the District of Columbia ending in abortion, an urgent prayer is desperately needed in our nation's capitol.

Please join parishioners and friends from around the Archdiocese at the Cathedral on Saturday, September 18 for a Mass and Procession as we witness to the dignity of every human life. Fr. William Byrne will celebrate the 8am Mass and lead a prayerful procession to the Planned Parenthood facility on 16th Street, NW. For information, call the Department of Life Issues at 301-853-4555, email mcarper@adw.org, or visit the Archdiocese of Washington Life Issues Facebook page. Additional "Witness to Life" events are planned for the following

A Lifeline for Marriage

Retrouvaille helps couples through difficult times in their marriages. It is designed to provide the tools to help get your marriage back on track and give you the opportunity to rediscover each other and examine your lives together in a new and positive way. This program has helped tens of thousands of couples experiencing marital difficulty at all levels including disillusionment and deep misery. For confidential information or to register for the program beginning with a weekend September 10-12, call 301-468-6764 or 410-647-0350, or visit the web site www.HelpOurMarriage.com.
